Bodine Lineage

THE BODINE FAMILY

THE Bodines of New York, New Jersey, and, indeed, of America, have their origin in the family le Boudin or de Baudain, and the antiquity of the surname is attested by French charters * of the twelfth century. The family le Boudin was settled in Cambray, in France, originally a district in the Low Countries, as early as 1126, † and bore for arms: D'azur au chev. d'or, acc. de trois roses du meme: au chef d'arg., chargé de trois merlette du champ. ‡

In France the family has borne an honorable part in war and peace, and has given to the world the noted political thinker and philosophical reasoner, Jean Bodin, a native of Angers, born 31 May, 1530, died of the plague at Laon in 1596, the father of political science, if Machiavelli be excepted, and the author of "Livres de la République," Paris, 1576. Sir William Hamilton [1729-1803] said of him that, from the time of Aristotle until Montesquieu the six books of Bodin's form the ablest and most remarkable treatise extant on the philosophy of government and legislation.

Gaspard de Bodin, of the branch Bodin de Boisrenarce, progenitor of the Bodins de Galumbert, was captain of the grenadiers of Guyenne and Chevalier de St. Louis, and left the service in 1767 with the rank of brevet-major. This line bore the arms of le Boudin, with the addition of lions as supporters. Of this family was Jean Francis Bodin, the historian, born at Angers, 26 September, 1776, died in 1829, author of "Recherches historiques sur Saumur et le haut Anjou," published in 1821 and 1822; and "Recherches historiques sur Angers et le bas Anjou." His son, Felix Bodin, born at Saumur, in December, 1795, died at Paris, 7 May, 1837, was likewise the author of several important historical works. Dr. Pierre Joseph François Bodin, the famous deputy for the Department Loire, who voted for the deportation of Louis XVI., was also of this branch.

1. JEAN BODINE<sup>1</sup>, of the Cambray family, is said to have removed to Medis, in the province of Saintonge, France, where his son Jean was born in 1645. He was doubtless a Huguenot, and left the country of his nativity to find an asylum in other lands, and it is thought that he made a short stay in Holland, as well as in England, before his coming to New York, where, on 3 November, 1677, he witnessed, with Maria Creison, at the Reformed Dutch Church, the baptism of Jan, son of Andries Canon by his wife Janetje Plúck. He settled on Staten Island, New York, at which place he had a survey of land, 1 April, 1686,* and where he died during the latter part of 1694. His estate was administered upon, 4 March, 1695, by Paulus Richards, and before the final settlement thereof his son Jean Bodine appeared as defendant in a suit against the same.† Nothing is known of his wife or of children other than the son given below.

(2) JEAN BODINE<sup>2</sup>, born 9 May, 1645; married (1) — Crocheron; (2) Esther Bridon.

2. JEAN BODINE<sup>2</sup> (Jean<sup>1</sup>) was, according to a tradition universal in the family, born at Medis, France, 9 May, 1645, and naturalized at London, England, 21 March, 1682, with second wife Esther, her parents, Francis and Jane Susan Bridon, and Francis Bridon, their son. ‡ For a short period

Jacques le Baudain and his brother Matthias le Baudain, born near Tournay, became merchants of London, about 1550.

Nicholas Baudoin, minister in charge both of St. Pierre Port in Guernsey and of St. Marie in Jersey. It appears that M. Baudoin accepted the charge in Jersey in 1585, owing to some disagreement between the French members and the Governor of Guernsey. He was however recalled to Guernsey and re-instated in the French Parish in 1599. He died in 1613, aged eighty-seven years.

Jasper Bodden removed from France to London, before 22 April, 1572, at which time he had a daughter Catherine, baptized at the Dutch Church of Austin Friars.

he resided at Rye, in Sussex, where at least two of his children were born,* after which he emigrated to the New World, possibly joining his father on Staten Island, and was living in the latter place at his father's death in 1695. His attention was attracted to the undulating fertile lands of Middlesex County, New Jersey, and thither he went, possibly with the intention of making a home in that district. He purchased on 12 May, 1701,† being then described as of Middlesex County, East Jersey, eighty acres of land on the west side of Staten Island, at Charles Neck, and removed there almost immediately, as his cattle-mark was entered at that place the following year. ‡ On 8 May, 1722, he bought of Francis Bridon another tract of eighty acres at the same place, § and on 2 February, 1736, Jelan Cossou and Esther Cossou, heirs-at-law to Francis Bridon, conveyed to him a dwelling-house and tract of ten acres also at Charles Neck. || He was living as late as 7 March, 1736, when he and his wife, Esther, sold lands to Francois Coden and John Lis.¶

He married (1) — Crocheron, whose father, John Crocheron, was among the émigrés to Staten Island, and who, by his will of 13 December, 1695, described himself as of great age, and bequeathed his estate to his wife Mary, eldest son Nicholas, son Anthony, and to his "other children." ** The son Nicholas Crocheron did not long survive his father, and his will, dated 10 February, 1702, gave half his paternal estate to his "nephews and nieces, the children of John Bodine by his first wife." He also left a legacy to the French congregation on Staten Island.†† Jean Bodine married (2), probably in England, Esther, the daughter of Francis Bridon, ‡‡ who was

‡‡ Port des Barques, near the mouth of Charente, Saintonge, France, was the home of Francis Bridon. He escaped to England in 1681, and afterwards came to Boston and was Elder of the French Church. His son Francis Bridon returned to Port des Barques for property in 1684, as Francis Bridon, wife, and two children fled in 1681, leaving property valued at eight hundred livres. Francis Bridon, his wife Susanna, son Francis, Jun<sup>r</sup>, servant Elias Vatlet, were naturalized in England, March 21, 1682. (Baird's History of the Huguenots.)

naturalized in London, and who may have accompanied his son-in-law to New York, where he died in May, 1704,* having made his daughter, Esther Bodine, the executor of his estate. The other heirs, under his will of 7 November, 1703, were son Francis Bridon, and daughter Susanna Rushé.† Francis Bridon, the younger, died in October, 1723, leaving a widow, Susanna Bridon, whose will, which bears date 10 November, 1724, gives to her "cousin" John Bodine a life interest in certain lands in Charles Neck, Staten Island, with remainder to his wife, Esther, and to their children. ‡

The descendants of Jean or John Bodine are scattered far and wide in the United States, and are people of character and substance who have borne their part in peace and was as law-abiding citizens and as active patriots.

huysen antagonized by his forceful preaching, and who voted, in 1729, for Mr. Frelinghuysen's removal from the united churches of Three Mile Run, Raritan, and North Branch. During the Colonial period lotteries were fruitful sources of raising funds for particular objects, and were often of great public utility. The following from the New York Weekly Post Boy of 28 November, 1748, well describes the land lottery system then in vogue:

"The scheme of a Lottery to be drawn at Raritan-Landing in the County of Middlesex, in New Jersey, by Mr. Peter Bodine, for raising £1302, New Jersey money, at Eight Shillings per Ounce. This Lottery consists of 195 Lots of Land, belonging to the said Peter Bodine, and are situated some of them in the very Heart of that growing Place, known by the Name of Raritan-Landing, which is the market for the most plentiful Wheat Country of its Bigness in America. The front Lots on the North Side of the Main Road are Number 14, and are all 63 Foot front, and are one with the other 150 foot back, and some more. There are great Improvements on two of the said front Lots, such as Houses, Store-Houses, Gardens, and other Out-Houses. There is also fronting the South Side of the main Road, 9 good building Lots of 63 Foot front, and 132 Foot back and some larger; on one of which there is a good new House. Also 16 Lots between the main road and the River, each Lot containing near an Acre; all which Lots are very conveniently situated for loading of Boats, and for the Market.

"There is also 156 other Lots, containing one with the other near Three Quarters of an Acre, some of which are well timbred, and so contrived in the laying them out, that they are commodiously situated for Building and other Uses. The Lottery consists of 930 Tickets, at Twenty Eight Shillings, Jersey money at 8s. per ounce each, amounting to the said sum of £1302; of which Tickets 195 are to be fortunate, agreeable to the Number of Lots, which are of different Values according to their different Situations. Messrs. Bernardus Le Grange and George Vroome are appointed Managers of the said Lottery, which will be drawn on the first Day of February next, and sooner if full, at some convenient place at the said Raritan-Landing, under the Inspection of Edward Antil, Esqr., and Mr. Hendrick Vroome, and others to join them if need be; who, with the said Managers, will be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of that Trust. The fortunate Tickets will be published in the New York Gazette, as soon as drawn; and the said Bodine will be at the Expence of laying out each Lot severally, but the Drawer to be at the expence of a Deed. A Map of the Whole is already carefully prepared, and will be shown at the Time of Drawing, and at any Time before, to such as have a Mind to be Adventurers.

“ This Lottery must be at least as advantageous as any that has as yet appeared: First, Because the lowest Prize will be worth at least Four Pounds, and so gradually ascending to £250. Secondly, Because there will be but little more than three and a half Blanks to a Prize: And Thirdly, Because the Lots must increase in Value very fast, as being situate in the most flourishing Part of the Province, and surrounded by a very fruitful, well-settled and fast-growing Country, to which this Landing is the most natural, easy and best Market. Tickets may be had at the said Bodine's, and the said Managers.”

A later announcement reads:

“ Notice is hereby given. That the Lottery to be drawn at the Raritan Landing in New Jersey, by Mr. Peter Bodine, is not yet quite full, obliges the Drawing to be postpon'd a little; it will, however be drawn as soon as possible: and those who incline to become Adventurers, are desired to be expeditious: Tickets are sold by Messrs. Barnardus Legrange and George Vroom, the Managers, or the printer hereof.—Weekly Post Boy, March 20, 1749.”

And still another in the issue of the same paper of 10 July:

“ Whereas the Lottery of Mr. Peter Bodine, at the Rariton Landing, is very near full; Notice is therefore given, That the Numbers will be put in the Boxes, on Tuesday the Fifteenth Day of August next, so that the Drawing may begin the next Day, if full, otherwise the Money to be restored; which 'tis hoped will not be the Case, as it is as well calculated as any that has as yet appeared; there is but about three and a half Blanks to a Prize, and a great many very valuable Prizes, without any manner of Deduction to the Drawer, only the expenses of a Deed. A few Tickets still remain to be sold by Messrs. Barnardus Legrange and George Vroom, the said Managers, and the Printer hereof, at 28 shillings each. Money at 8s per oz.—Weekly Post Boy, July 10, 1749.”

The end came a few weeks later:

“ The Land Lottery of Mr. Peter Bodine at Rariton Landing is drawn; but the Numbers came to Hand too late to be printed in this Weeks Paper.—The Weekly Post Boy, August 28, 1749.”

The issue of 4 September following contains “ A List of the Numbers of the Prizes in the Land Lottery of Mr. Peter Bodine at Rariton Landing.” * that of his said son, 10 November, 1747. The date and place of his death are uncertain. In 1754 a Peter Bodine was living in Montgomery County, New York, and he was probably of this family. On 18 July, 1722,† he purchased of Elizabeth Merlatt, both being described as of Piscataway, some sixty acres of land on Ambrose Brook, ‡ near Piscataway, which he afterwards sold, purchasing on 24 April, 1752, a tract of land adjoining his then residence on the North Branch of the Raritan. In this year one Abraham Bodine, possibly he, owned a part of the Peter Van Nest tract on the west side of the North Branch. The date of his death is uncertain. He married, about 1723, Adriantje Janse.

He was a witness to a deed for land at Charles Neck, 7 March, 1736,* after which his name disappears from the records of Richmond County, and he doubtless removed to Cranbury, Middlesex County, New Jersey, with his sons Francis and Vincent, and there died. He married Maria, daughter of James Dey,† of Staten Island, by his first wife, Mary Mulliner. The issue of this marriage is somewhat uncertain, and there were probably other children than those given below.

Children of Francis<sup>3</sup> and Maria (Dey) Bodine:

- (9) i. FRANCIS BODINE<sup>4</sup>, married (1) —; (2) Rachel Wilson.
- (10) ii. JOHN BODINE<sup>4</sup>, died in March, 1779; married Dorcas —.
- (11) iii. VINCENT BODINE<sup>4</sup>, died in March, 1790; married Ann Dey.

Cranbury, during the Revolution, frequently resounded with the tread of marching feet, and in 1778 the main body of the army spent the night of 26 June, the eve of the battle of Monmouth, at this place, which event was described by General Washington in his report to the Honorable Henry Laurens, President of Congress, under date of 1 July, 1778, in this manner: "In the evening of the same day [26 June], the whole army marched from Kingston, where our baggage was left, with the intention to preserve a proper distance for supporting the advanced corps, and arrived at Cranbury early the next morning. The intense heat of the weather, and a heavy storm unluckily coming on, made it impossible to resume our march that day without great inconvenience and injury to the troops. Our advanced corps, being differently circumstanced, moved from the position it had held the night before, and took post in the evening on the Monmouth Road, about five miles from the enemy's rear, in expectation of attacking them next morning on their march. The main body having remained at Cranbury, the advanced corps was found to be too remote, and too far upon the right, to be supported either in case of an attack upon or from the enemy, which induced me to send orders to the Marquis to file off by his left toward Englishtown, which he accordingly executed early in the morning of the 27th." ‡

On 1 November, 1775, Francis Bodine had some thirty acres of land surveyed in Tranquillity Swamp, on Wading River, in Little Egg Harbor

The will named wife Dorcas, children John, James, Martha, Vincent, Ann, Mary Egberts, and eldest daughter Rachel Bodine.

- v. JAMES BODINE<sup>8</sup>, born 17 December, 1758; died 13 May, 1838; married Margaret ——. Of his sons, James and Tunis Bodine removed, in 1816, to what is now Ocean County, New Jersey, located at Mannahawkin, and entered into the mercantile business.
- vi. MARTHA BODINE<sup>8</sup>, baptized 31 October, 1762; died in January, 1813; married Peter La Forge.
- vii. VINCENT BODINE<sup>8</sup>, born 26 November, 1766; baptized 11 November, 1767; died circa June, 1823; married, circa 1788, Jane ——. In his will, executed at Castleton, 14 August, 1822, proved 1 July, 1823,* bequests were made to wife Jane, to grandchildren Vincent Bodine and Eliza Jane Bodine, children of son John deceased, to son Vincent Bodine, and to daughter Mary Ann, wife of Nicholas Britton. He had, besides these, a daughter Martha Bodine, born 4 October, 1789, baptized at St. Andrew's, 20 June, 1790.
- viii. ANN BODINE<sup>8</sup>, born 30 March, 1769; baptized 7 October, 1770.

II. VINCENT BODINE<sup>4</sup> (Francis<sup>3</sup>, Jean<sup>2</sup>, Jean<sup>1</sup>), was born, doubtless on Staten Island, circa 1727, and located in Middlesex County, New Jersey, some time before the birth of his first child, at Cranbury, in that county, in 1754. On 22 September, 1760, he purchased one hundred and fifty acres along the Millstone River, beginning where Rocky Brook runs into the Millstone,† and the next year, on 14 April, he bought an additional tract which had originally been confirmed to his father-in-law, Lawrence Dey. These lands were known as the Old Church Farm, near Red Tavern. One of his descendants, Mrs. Ann Eliza (Bodine) Dey, living in 1897, and then entering her eighty-seventh year, made the statement that her father, James Bodine, frequently said he recollected General Lafayette, with a detachment of troops, being quartered on the farm of his father, Vincent Bodine, at Cranbury, during the Revolution. This reminiscence is, at least partially, corroborated by General Washington's report to Congress, 1 July, 1778, in which he recounts the detention of the army at Cranbury.

Vincent Bodine died in March, 1790, and is thought to have been interred in the First Church burying-ground at Cranbury, leaving a will bearing date 22 July, 1785, proved 22 March, 1790, ‡ in which the various children given below are named. He married, about 1753, Ann, daughter of Lawrence Dey, of Middlesex County, born 14 May, 1732, who was living at the date of his will.
