

Bass River Neck and Bridgeport Friends Meeting Minutes

An Indulged Meeting under the care of the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting was established at Tuckerton in 1709. The Little Egg Harbor Preparative Meeting was established in 1714, and in 1715 the Indulged and Preparative Meetings were transferred to the Little Egg Harbor Monthly Meeting. During the great split in the late 1820's, the Little Egg Harbor Monthly Meeting remained Orthodox.; however, it's indulged meeting at Bridgeport chose the Hicksite path and came under the care of the Mount Holly Monthly Meeting in 1828.

The Little Egg Harbor Monthly Meeting was discontinued in 1901 when it became an indulged meeting under the care of the Burlington Monthly Meeting during the summer months. In 1986, a new Little Egg Harbor Monthly Meeting was established by the Burlington Quarterly Meeting and is still in existence today.

The following references related to the indulged meetings held in Bass River Neck and Bridgeport were taken from the Little Egg Harbor Monthly Meeting Minutes. They were transcribed by Peter H. Stemmer from microfilmed copies of the Little Egg Harbor Friends Monthly Meeting and the Mt. Holly Friends Monthly Meeting minutes. Italics denote minutes from the Women's Monthly Meeting.

Lucy Ann Evans Memorial

Woman friends named to join men friends in abridgin [sic] the memorial of Lucy Ann Evans, have attended to it, men friends inform us that way did not open for it to go forward, and where united in its being placed upon the records of the Monthly Meeting Book which was united with us, [2½ inch blank space left blank] . Meeting concludes.

Notwithstanding years have elapsed since the deceased of our beloved friend Lucy Ann Evans, yet as she by her upright life and conversation, her practical benevolence and charity was truly a preacher of Righteousness, the remembrance of which still lives in our minds. A concern has arisen believing it might be proffitable [sic] to give our testimony concerning her.

She was the daughter of Samuel and Lucy Kellum and born in the year 1759 at Beverley in the Sate [sic] of Massachusetts [sic]. She was young when her Mother died and was placed with a connexion [sic] of the family in Boston who sometime after removed to Philadelphia brought her with them.

The benevolence of her disposition was earley [sic] manifested in acts of kindness and charity to such of her fellow creatures as were needy or afflicted, without liberty (as she expressed herself) to enquire [sic] wether [sic] they were worthy or not, at this time she followed working with her needle and from her own account it appears that frequently a large portion of her earnings were devoted to the relief of such whom she often visited, she has been heard to speak of one case that came under her notice of an aged Catholic Woman languishing in extreme poverty who often preached to her Quaker doctrine long before she knew any of the society of friends, and that the instruction she received from her far exceeded any she had before met with.

In the year 1795 she was married to Jesse Evans with whom she lived in qual [sic] during the remainder of her life, and with whom she removed to New Jersey and shortly after to Martha furnace where an extensive field was open for the exercise of those acts of Benevolence and charity which had ever adorned her character.

She was at this time in the gay walks of life but her meekness and engaging manners gained for her the esteem of all with whom she had intercourse.

The use of snuff was a habit she had long indulged in untill [sic] about the forty fifth year of her age she felt it to be a duty required of her to abandon the use thereof, this appears to have been the first important sacrifices she was called upon to make in obedience to divine requirements, and so wrought upon her as to confine her to her room for som [sic] weeks in which as she afterwards expressed it the pernicious effects resulting from the use of tobacco to both mind and body was made clearly manifest to her and she ever after bore a faithful testimony against its use and frequently in after life in select opportunities has felt herself called upon to decry its use as inconsistant [sic] with the character of a deciple [sic] of Christ.

Having thus been made willing to yield up her own will and enabled to obtain the victory under an humbling sense of the mercy and love of her heavenly father she was lead to seek in retirement for the bread of eternal life and in obedience to Divine manifestations of duty laid as to many of her former habits manifesting to the works that she was willing to appear in great simplicity for Christ's sake whom she said she had found to be the light within the anchor of Hope and source of consolation amid all her conflicts and in the clear evidence now offered her saw it was the same that had been with her from her youth up, though she knew it not untill [sic] it broke in upon her understanding and became the day star to her.

Being remotely situated she had but little intercourse with any religious denomination untill [sic] she became impressed with the belief that it would be right for her to join the Religious Society of Friends under the impression she regularly attended their meetings twelve miles distant, and in process of time was received a member of Little Egg harbour Monthly Meeting.

She was much concerned for the promotion of Truth and Righteousness amongst men evinceing [sic] by her life and conversation an earnest desire all might become partakers of that inward peace and enjoyment that is experienced where Christ is suffered to arise in power and dominion over all.

She was appointed to the Station of an Elder by Little Eggharbour Monthly Meeting and subsequently by Mount Holly Monthly Meeting of which she became a member, and being endowed with the Spirit of judgment was eminently Qualified to fill that Station and to administer a word of caution or encouragement in due season. She traveled several extensive journeys in truth's service as companion to those called in the line of the Ministry to whom she was a true help mate proving herself worthy the appalation [sic] of a Mother in _____ .

She was favoured in a remarkable manner with the spirit of Discernment or Prophecy two instances of which we deem worthy of record - at the preparative meeting of which she was a member she once spoke as follows "it is with trimbling [sic] and great weakness that arise to break the silence of this meeting but the fear of offending my God causes me to stand upon my feet, there is something rest upon my mind to communicate to some [sic] one present, perhaps myself, "set thy house in order for thou shall die and not live," and I also believe there are those present who are under the preparing hand of the Lord for deep trials and tribulations that await them are long but fear not for those shall have joy and rejoicing in the end. The Meeting seperated [sic] as usual and an aged Friend after participating in the business before the Meeting died before it closed.

The other instance as follows- Arising earley [sic] one morning she said if ever I see my dear H again (alluding to a friend in declining health) I must go to day the weather was dark and stormy but her belief was strong that it would be right for her to go, she and another female Friend set out and rode near forty miles to the residence of the friend alluded to and the result proved the truth of her impression as the individual Deceased in a short time after they arrived.

Although of a slender constitution she was enabled to indure many severe hardships and privations by day and by night in the prosecution of her various benevolent purposes in the most inclement seasons visiting the sick and afflicted in their Comfortless habitation & without regard to notion or colour.

Her Store house was ever open to feed the hungry and cloth the naked, and the stranger was not sent empty away, the orphan in her found a tender Mothers care, and her house was an asylum for many.

Of a strong and persevering mind she shrunk not from the performance of what she believed to be her duty to the close of her life. in the fall of 1834 she was attached with Billious fever which she bore with Christian patience and resignation and which terminated her valuable life in the Sixty Sixth year of her age.

10th Day, 3rd Month, 1847 [page 288]

The committee appointed to prepare a memorial for Lucy Ann Evans produced one which is directed to be signed by the Clerks and forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting. [Note: Memorial did not appear in the minutes.]
