considerable tributary of the Raritan river, rising in a narrow valley between New Providence and Westfield t-ships, Essex co., and thence flowing by a S. W. course of about 16 miles, skirting the semicircular mountain of Somerset co., to its recipient at Bound Brook. It is a mill stream of considerable power.

Green Brook, village, on Green brook above described, in Piscataway t-ship, Middlesex co., 8 miles from New Brunswick, $6\frac{1}{2}$ from Somerville; contains a mill, a school house, 2 stores, and 15 dwellings. The country on the south and east, level and fertile, valued at \$50 the acre; on the north mountainous.

Green Creek, small stream of Middle t-ship, Cape May co., which by a course of 2 or 3 miles, flows into the Delaware bay. It gives name to a post-office near it, distant 106 miles from W. C., and 109 from Trenton.

Green Pond, Valley, and Mountain; the first a beautiful sheet of water, 3 miles in length and 1 in breadth, embosomed in the valley to which it gives name, between the Copperas and Green Pond mountains, Pequannock t-ship, Morris co. The pond is much resorted to for its fish, and its beautiful scenery, where nature is yet unsubdued, and the red deer still roam at will. The valley is drained by the Burnt Cabin brook, a principal branch of the Rockaway river. Green Pond mountain, which has its name also from the same source, extends about 13 miles from the Rockaway to the Pequannock creek; it is a high, narrow, and stony granitic ridge, and lies on the boundary between Pequannock and Jefferson t-ships.

Greene t-ship, Sussex co., bounded N. E. and E. by Newton and Byram t-ships, S. by Roxbury t-ship, Morris co., W. by Independence and Hardwicke t-ships, of the same county, and N. W. by Stillwater t-ship, of Sussex co. Centrally distant S. W. from Newton 7 miles; greatest length N. and S. 9 miles; breadth E. and W. 4 miles; area, 14,080 acres; surface on the south mountainous, elsewhere hilly. It is drained by tributaries of the Pequest creek, which flow through it to the southwest. Hunt's and Grass ponds are noted sheets of water in the t-ship; Greenville near the centre is the post-town. By the census of 1830 the t-ship contained 801 inhabitants, and in 1832 150 taxables, 23 householders, whose ratables did not exceed $30, 1 store, 2 grist mills, 1 saw mill, 150 horses and mules, and 400 neat cattle 3 years old and upwards, 12 tar vats; and paid a state and county tax of $279 60; poor tax, 200; and road tax, $400. The mountain on the S. E. is composed of grey rock; the basis of the soil, in the remainder of the t-ship, is limestone and slate, the former prevailing.

Green Bank, settlement on the left bank of Mullica river, Washington t-ship, Burlington co., about 10 miles by the river from its union with Great bay. There are here, 2 taverns, 2 stores, and 12 or 15 dwellings, within a space of 2 miles. The shore is clean and high; the soil sandy loam, of tolerable quality and well cultivated.

Greenville, p.t. and village, of Greene t-ship, Sussex co., by the post route, 222 miles N. E. of W. C., 69 from Trenton, and 8 S. W. from Newton; contains a store, tannery, and 10 or 12 dwellings, and is surrounded by a rich limestone country.

Green Village, Chatham t-ship, Morris co., $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles S. E. from Morristown; contains some 5 or 6 dwellings, situated in a pleasant fertile country.

Greenwich t-ship, Gloucester co., bounded on the N. E. by Deptford t-ship, S. E. by Franklin, S. W. by Woolwich t-ships, and N. W. by the river Delaware. Centrally distant S. W. from Woodbury 7 miles; greatest length 15 miles; greatest breadth 7 miles; area, 35,840 acres; surface level; soil sandy. It is drained N. W. by Mantua on the N. E., and by Repaupo creek on the S. W. boundary; Clonmell and Crab creeks are small intermediate streams; and on
